That inquiry be made into all charitable uſes given for the benefit of poor Priſoners.

XI. And likewiſe that the ſaid Lord Chief Juſtices, Lord Chief Baron, and Juſtices of the peace in their ſeveral Juriſdictions, and all Commiſſioners for charitable uſes, do their beſt endeavours and diligence to examine and find out the ſeveral Legacies, Gifts and Bequeſts beſtowed and given for the benefit and advantage of the poor Priſoners for Debt, in the ſeveral Gaols and Priſons in this Kingdom; and to ſend for any Deeds, Wills, Writings and Books of Accompts whatſoever; and any perſon or perſons concerned therein, and to examine them upon Oath, to make true diſcovery thereof (which they have full power and authority hereby to do) and the ſame ſo found out and aſcertained, to order and ſettle in ſome manner and way, that the priſoners hereafter may not be defrauded, but receive the full benefit thereof, according to the true intent of the Donors.

That the Rates of Fees, and government of Priſons be ſigned by the Lord Chief Juſtices, &c. and hung up in every Gaol, fairly written.

XII. And that theſe Accounts of the ſeveral Legacies, Gifts and Bequeſts given and beſtowed upon the ſeveral priſoners for Debt, within this Kingdom, and the ſeveral Rates of Fees, and the future government of Priſons, be ſigned and confirmed by the Lord Chief Juſtices, and Lord Chief Baron, or any two of them for the time being, and the Juſtices of the Peace in London, Middleſex, and Surrey, and by the Judges for the ſeveral Circuits, and Juſtices of the peace for the time being, in their ſeveral Precincts, and fairly written and hung up in a Table in every Gaol and Priſon, before the firſt day of November, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy and one, and likewiſe be Regiſtred by each, and every Clerk of the Peace within his or their particular Juriſdiction: And after ſuch eſtabliſhment, no other or greater Fee or Fees then ſhall be ſo Eſtabliſhed, ſhall be demanded or received.

Felons and priſoners for Debt not to be lodged together.

XIII. And whereas it is become the common practice of Gaolers and Keepers of Newgate, the Gatehouſe at Weſtminſter, and ſundry other Goals and Priſons, to lodge together in one Room or Chamber and Bed, Priſoners for Debt and Felons, whereby many times honeſt Gentlemen, Tradeſmen and others, priſoners for Debt, are diſturbed and hindred in the night-time from their natural reſt, by reaſon of their Fetters and Irons, and otherwiſe much offended and troubled by their lewd and prophane language and diſcourſes, with moſt horrid curſing and ſwearing (much accuſtomed to ſuch perſons) (2) Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall not be lawful hereafter for any Sheriff, Gaoler, or Keeper of any Gaol or Priſon, to put, keep, or lodge Priſoners for Debt, and Felons together in one Room or Chamber; but that they ſhall be put, kept, and lodged ſeparate and apart one from another, in diſtinct rooms, (3) upon pain that he, ſhe, or they which ſhall offend againſt this Act, or the true intent and meaning thereof, or any part thereof, ſhall forfeit and loſe his or her Office, Place or Imployment, and ſhall forfeit treble damages to the party grieved, to be recovered by vertue of this Act; Any Law, Statute, Uſage or Cuſtom to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

CAP. XXIV. (16.)

An Act for Veſting certain Fee-Farm Rents, and other ſmall Rents in Truſtees.

Whereas his Majeſty, in purſuance of a late Act, Intituled, An Act for Advancing the Sale of Fee-Farm Rents, and other Rents, hath by ſeveral Letters Patents (one bearing date the Thirteenth day of June, in the Two and twentieth year of his Reign, and the other bearing date the Eleventh day of November, in the Two and twentieth year of his Reign) granted and conveyed divers Fee-farm Rents, and other Rents, unto Francis Lord Hawley, Sir Charles Harbord Knight, Sir William Haward Knight, Sir John Talbot Knight, Sir Robert Stewart Knight, and William Harbord Eſquire, and their Heirs, as Truſtees for Sale thereof, moſt of which Rents are of the yearly value of Fourty ſhillings per Annum, and upwards;

22 Car. 2. cap. 6.

II. And whereas there are yet remaining very many ſmall Rents left out of the ſaid Letters Patents which were intended by the ſaid Act to be ſold and conveyed away, the collection of which ſmall Rents is very chargeable to his Majeſty, and very troubleſome to the Subject, by means of Under-ſheriffs, Bayliffs and Meſſengers, neceſſarily employed therein; (2) and yet if the ſaid ſmall Rents ſhould be conveyed by Letters Patents to Truſtees for ſale thereof, the ſaid Letters Patents would be of extraordinary length, and require a multitude of recitals of many ſmall ſums, which beſides the charge in Writing, would alſo be an occaſion of great hindrance and delay to his Majeſties Service: (2) Be it therefore enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority thereof, That all Fee-farm Rents, Rents-ſervice, Rents-ſeck, or Dry-rents, Chauntry-rents, Guild-rents, Caſtle-guard-rents, and other Rents within the Survey of the Exchequer, or Dutchy of Lancaſter, due and payable to his Majeſty, his heirs and Succeſſors, in poſſeſſion, reverſion or remainder (other then ſuch Rents and ſums of Money as are ſpecially ſaved and excepted out of the ſaid Act) be, and are hereby veſted and ſettled in the ſaid Francis Lord Hawley, Sir Charles Harbord, Sir William Haward, Sir John Talbot, Sir Robert Stewart, and William Harbord, and their heirs, as fully and abſolutely to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever, as if the ſame had been particularly granted unto them by Letters Patents by vertue of the ſaid Act, and in ſuch manner as is hereby directed in that behalf; (4) and the ſaid Rents hereby veſted in the ſaid Truſtees, ſhall be by them conveyed and diſpoſed according to the Directions and Inſtructions mentioned in the ſaid Act, to any perſon or perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, who ſhall deſire to purchaſe the ſame Rents, or any of them, upon a particular, or certificate thereof made by the Auditor or other Officer of Record, before whom the ſame do or ſhall ſtand in charge reſpectively; which Conveyance of the ſaid Truſtees, and the Survivors and Survivor of them, ſhall be as good and effectual in Law to all intents and purpoſes, as if the Rents ſo conveyed had been particularly, immediately, and well and ſufficiently granted by his Majeſty under the Great Seal of England, or the Seal of the Dutchy or County Palatine of Lancaſter.

All purchaſers of Fee-farm Rents to be kept harmleſs from all incumbrances made by the Truſtees.

III. And for the better ſecurity and ſatisfaction of the Purchaſers of any the ſaid Rents, (2) Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every perſon or perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, their heirs, ſucceſſors and aſſigns, who have already been, or hereafter ſhall become purchaſer or purchaſers of any of the ſaid Rents granted by the ſaid recited Letters Patents, or mentioned, or intended to be veſted in, or conveyed by theſe Preſents to the ſaid Truſtees, ſhall quietly hold and enjoy the ſame, according to their ſeveral and reſpective purchaſes, and ſhall be, and are hereby ſaved and indempnified, and kept harmleſs of and from all, and all manner of Incumbrances whatſoever heretofore had, or hereafter to be had, made or done by the ſaid Truſtees, or any of them, to charge or incumber the ſaid Rents with any Incumbrances whatſoever.

The Receivers-general may receive them till ſale made.

IV. Provided always, and it is the true intent and meaning of theſe Preſents, That until Sale ſhall be made of the ſaid ſeveral Rents, by the Truſtees afore mentioned, or the ſurvivors or ſurvivor of them, their heirs, executors or adminiſtrators, That the Receiver or Receivers-general of his Majeſties Revenue, ſhall and may receive, collect and gather the ſame, and every part thereof as fully to all intents and purpoſes, as if the ſaid Letters Patents, or this preſent Act had not been made.

Advantages allowed to Purchaſers.
Car. 2. cap.

V. And laſtly, be it enacted, That all ſuch perſons as ſhall purchaſe any of the ſaid Rents by vertue of this Act, ſhall have and enjoy all the benefits and advantages given or allowed to Purchaſers by the ſaid former Act, and the ſhewing of the Printed Copies of this and the ſaid former Act, and of the Conveyance made by the ſaid Truſtees, and Enrolled according to the direction of the ſaid former Act, ſhall be ſufficient Evidence in any Court of Juſtice, to Entitle the Purchaſer and Purchaſers, their heirs and aſſigns, to any Rent by him, her, or them purchaſed, and contained in ſuch Conveyance, without any further proof or evidence in that behalf.

The ſhewing of this Act and Deed ſhall be a good evidence in any Court of Juſtice.

No Tenant in Tail of any of the ſaid Rents, ſhall ſuffer any Recovery to bar the Remainder.

VI. Provided, That no Tenant in Tail of any the ſaid Rents, ſhall be enabled by this Act to ſuffer any Recovery, or do any other Act or Deed to bar the Remainder, hereby veſted in the ſaid Truſtees and their heirs, nor ſhall ſuch Tenant in Tail have any other or greater power over the ſaid Rent, then he had before the paſſing of this Act; Any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Truſtees duly executing their authority, ſhall be diſcharged againſt his Majeſty, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Truſtees, and the ſurvivors and ſurvivor of them, conveying and diſpoſing of the ſaid Rents according to ſuch Contracts and Agreements as ſhall be Signed by the Lord Treaſurer of England, and Chancellor of the Exchequer, or the Lords Commiſſioners of his Majeſties Treaſury for the time being, purſuant to the ſaid former, or this preſent Act, and the heirs, executors, or adminiſtrators of the ſaid Truſtees ſhall be for ſo doing, and are hereby freed and diſcharged againſt his Majeſty, his heirs and Succeſſors for ever.

All purchaſers may make a general Juſtification, by ſaying that the Truſtees were ſeized in Fee, and ſo granted to them.

VIII. and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That every Purchaſer of any of the Rents and Premiſſes, by the intent of this or any former Act, ſold, or appointed to be ſold, their heirs and aſſigns, and all perſon and perſons, their heirs, executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, claiming by, from, or under ſuch Purchaſer or Purchaſers, may Sue for, make Avowry, Juſtification, or Conuzance, as the caſe ſhall require, for ſuch Rent or Rents, and Premiſſes, and Arrears thereof, without ſetting forth how his Majeſty or his Progenitors became Entituled to ſuch Rents, or other the Premiſſes, or ſetting forth or producing in Court any Letters Patents, or other matter, whereby ſuch Rents or Premiſſes had commencement, or the ſaid Letters Patents whereby the Premiſſes were granted, or intended to be granted to the ſaid Francis Lord Hawley, Sir Charles Harbord, Sir William Haward, Sir John Talbot, Sir Robert Stewart, and William Harbord; (2) But it ſhall be ſufficient in every ſuch Suit, Avowry, Conuzance, or Juſtification, where occaſion ſhall be, to ſet forth the Title of ſuch Purchaſer, to declare or alledge, that the ſaid Francis Lord Hawley, Sir

Charles Harbord, Sir William Haward, Sir John Talbot, Sir Robert Stewart, and William Harbord, were ſeized in Fee, or in Demeſn, as of Fee, of ſuch Rent or Premiſſes in poſſeſſion or Reverſion as the caſe requires, and ſo ſeized, granted the ſame.

IX. Whereas many of the Rents veſted in the ſaid Truſtees by the two Patents herein before mentioned, are either miſrecited, or not ſo fully and particularly expreſſed, as may be reaſonably deſired by ſome Purchaſers: (2) Be it therefore further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Truſtees, and the ſurvivor and ſurvivors of them, and the heirs of ſuch ſurvivors, ſhall and may convey the ſaid Rents, or any of them, to the reſpective Purchaſers, either by the words expreſſed in the ſaid Letters Patents, or by particulars to be made out by the reſpective Auditors, or by the original Grants from the Crown, wherein thoſe Rents are reſerved, as the ſaid Truſtees ſhall find moſt convenient for the ſatisfaction of the ſaid Purchaſers; (3) Saving unto the Queens Majeſty all ſuch Right, Title, Intereſt, Poſſeſſion, or Eſtate as her Majeſty had, ſhould, or might have, or of right ought to have had in, or unto the Rents hereby veſted, or any of them, as fully and amply as her Majeſty would or might have had before this preſent Act, and as if this Act had never been had or made; Any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Liberty given to purchaſe by the words expreſſed in the Letters Patents, the Auditors Certificates or Grants from the Crown.

A ſaving to the Queens Majeſty of all her Rights, &c.

An Act for the better preſervation of the Game, and for Securing Warrens not Incloſed, and the ſeveral Fiſhings of this Realm.

Whereas divers diſorderly perſons, laying aſide their lawful Trades and Imployments, do betake themſelves to the ſtealing, taking, and killing of Conies, Hares, Pheaſants, Partridges, and other Game intended to be preſerved by former Laws, with Guns, Dogs, Tramels, Lowbels, Hays, and other Nets, Snares, Harepipes, and other Engines, to the great Damage of this Realm, and prejudice of Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Lords of Manors and others, owners of Warrens:

And it is hereby enacted and declared, That all and every perſon and perſons not having Lands and Tenements, or ſome other Eſtate of Inheritance in his own or his Wifes right, of the clear yearly value of One hundred pounds per annum, or for term of life, or having Leaſe or Leaſes of Ninety nine years, or for any longer term, of the clear yearly value of One hundred and fifty pounds, other then the Son and Heir apparent of an Eſquire, or other perſon of higher degree; and the Owners and Keepers of Foreſts, Parks, Chaſes or Warrens, being ſtocked with Deer or Conies for their neceſſary uſe, in reſpect of the ſaid Foreſts, Parks, Chaſes or Warrens, are hereby declared to be perſons by the Laws of this Realm, not allowed to have or keep for themſelves, or any other perſon or perſons, any Guns, Bows, Grey-hounds, Setting-dogs, Ferrets, Coney-dogs, Lurchers, Hayes, Nets, Lowbels, Harepipes, Ginns, Snares, or other Engines aforeſaid; But ſhall be, and are hereby prohibited to have, keep, or uſe the ſame.

What perſons are prohibited the keeping of Guns, Bows, Dogs, &c.

IV. And foraſmuch as divers Warrens and Grounds not Incloſed, are uſed for the breeding and keeping of Coneys in ſeveral parts of this Kingdom, and that ſundry diſſolute and diſorderly perſons have been much encouraged to kill and deſtroy the Conies in ſuch Warrens and Grounds not Incloſed, in the night-time, for that the ſame is not prohibited or puniſhable by the Statutes in that behalf made and provided, which extend onely to the ſtealing and killing of Conies in Warrens or Grounds Incloſed: (2) For remedy thereof, Be it enacted and declared, That if any perſon or perſons ſhall at any time enter wrongfully into any Warren or Ground lawfully uſed, or kept for the breeding or keeping of Conies (although the ſame be not Incloſed) and there ſhall chaſe, take, or kill any Conies againſt the will of the Owner or Occupier thereof, not having lawful Title or Authority ſo to do, and ſhall be thereof lawfully convicted in manner hereafter following, the parties ſo offending ſhall yield to the party grieved treble damages and coſts, and ſuffer Impriſonment by the ſpace of Three months, and after, till they ſhall find Sureties for their good abearing.

No perſon ſhall fiſh in the pond of any perſon without his conſent, with Nets or other Engines.

AT the Parliament Summoned to begin at Weſtminſter on the Seventeenth day of October, 1679. in the One and thirtieth year of our Sovereign Lord CHARLES the Second, by the Grace of God, of England, Scotland, France and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, &c. and by ſeveral Prorogations continued to the One and Twentieth day of October, 1680. in the Thirty ſecond year of his ſaid Majeſties Reign. And thence continued to the Tenth of January next enſuing, on which day the following Acts Paſſed the Royal Aſſent.

CAP. I.

An Additional Act for Burying in Woollen.

WHereas in one Act of Parliament Paſſed in the Thirtieth year of his Majeſties Reign that now is, Entituled, An Act for Burying in Woollen, it was amongſt other things, Enacted and Ordained, That the Affidavits which were to be made of any perſons being Interred in Woollen according to the directions in the ſaid Act, ſhould be made or taken before ſome one Juſtice of the Peace or Maſter of Chancery, Ordinary or Extraordinary, Mayor, Bayliff, or other chief Officer of the City, County, Borough, Corporation or Market-town in the County where the ſaid party was Buried, who are thereby Authorized and Required to Adminiſter the ſaid Oath, and to Atteſt the ſame under their Hands upon ſuch Affidavit gratis:

A recital of former Affidavits. Cap. 3. Sect. 5. N. 1.

II. And whereas by reaſon of the diſtance of the Habitations of the perſons before whom ſuch Affidavit is to be made, and other accidents, divers perſons who have had occaſion to make ſuch Affidavits, have been neceſſitated to Travel many Miles for the making thereof, to their great loſs of time, and hinderance of their other Affairs:

The hinderance of Affidavits by diſtance of place.

III. Be it therefore enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That from and after the Second day of February, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and eighty, (where no Juſtice of the Peace ſhall reſide or be to be found in any Pariſh where any party ſhall be Interred) the ſaid Oaths or Affidavits may be Adminiſtred, not onely by any Juſtice of the Peace, or Maſter of Chancery, Ordinary or Extraordinary, Mayor, Bayliff, or other chief Officer of the City, County, Burrough, Corporation, or Market-town in the County where any party was Buried; but alſo that the Parſons, Vicars, and Curates, in every Pariſh or Chappel of Eaſe, within the County where any party ſhall be Interred, (except onely the Parſon, Vicar, and Curate of the Pariſh or Chappel of Eaſe where the party is Interred, concerning whoſe Interment in Woollen ſuch Affidavit is to be made) be, and are hereby Authorized and Required to Adminiſter the ſaid Oaths or Affidavits, and to Atteſt the ſame under their Hands gratis; (2) And that every ſuch Affidavit taken before them, ſhall be of like force and effect, as if the ſame had been taken and Adminiſtred by the perſons Authorized to Adminiſter the ſame by the Act aforeſaid.

Where no Juſtice reſides or is found in Pariſh of burial, the Parſon, Vicar, and Curate may take Affidavit of burial in Woollen only.

Affidavit taken by Parſon, &c. as effectual as by 30 Car. 2. cap. 3. Sect. 5. N. 1.

CAP. II.

An Act Prohibiting the Importation of Cattel from Ireland.

A recital of 18 Car.2. cap.2.

Whereas an Act of Parliament was made in the Eighteenth year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord the King that now is, Entituled, An Act againſt Importing Cattel from Ireland, and other parts beyond the Seas, and Fiſh taken by Foreigners; which was to continue until the end of Seven years, and from thence to the end of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament, which is now expired:

The benefit of it. That 18 Car.2. cap.2. be revived and continued for ever.

II. And foraſmuch as by long experience the ſaid Law hath been found to be very beneficial to this Kingdom, (2) Be it enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Act, and every Clauſe, Article, and Thing therein contained, together with the Additions and Alterations herein after mentioned and expreſſed, ſhall from and after the Second day of February, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord God, One thouſand ſix hundred and eighty, be revived, continue, and remain, and is hereby revived and continued in force, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes for ever.

Not only Officers, but all perſons may ſeize Iriſh Cattle and goods Imported. All ſeizors to have benefit.

To prevent fraudulent ſales and compoſitions.

IV. And to prevent all fraudulent Seizures, Sales, and Compoſitions, to be made by any perſon or perſons whatſoever, in any Pariſh or Place whatſoever, where any great Cattel, Sheep, or Swine ſhall be Imported or found contrary to this, or the Act aforeſaid, and to make the Prohibitions therein more effectual, Seizor ſhall cauſe the Cattel to be killed. Hides and Tallow to be the Seizors, the reſt to be diſtributed to the Poor by the Church-wardens, &c.

V. Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every the reſpective Seizor or Seizors of ſuch Cattel, Sheep, or Swine, ſhall within ſix days after Conviction and Forfeiture thereof, cauſe the ſaid Cattel, Sheep, and Swine to be killed, (2) and the Hides and Tallow of ſuch great Cattel, Sheep, and Swine, ſhall be and remain to the uſe of the ſaid Seizor or Seizors, and the remainder of the ſaid great Cattel, Sheep and Swine, ſhall be forthwith diſtributed amongſt the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh, by the Church-wardens and Overſeers of the Poor there, or ſome of them, upon notice thereof to be given them, or any of them, by ſuch Seizor or Seizors as aforeſaid; Any thing in the ſaid former Law, or any other Law to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Seizors, Church-wardens and Overſeers on neglect forfeit xl.s. each great Cattel, and x.s. each Sheep or Swine. To be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of Chattels by Warrant of any Juſtice, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted, That in caſe the ſaid Seizor or Seizors, or the Church-wardens and Overſeers of the Poor, ſhall fail in their reſpective Duties, in the Execution of this Act, They and every of them reſpectively, ſhall forfeit the ſum of Forty ſhillings for every one of the great Cattel, and Ten ſhillings for every Sheep or Swine, which ſhould have been killed and diſtributed as aforeſaid, one moyety thereof to the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh, and the other moyety to the Informer: (2) The ſame to be Levied by Diſtreſs & Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the perſon or perſons ſo offending, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any Juſtice of the Peace of the ſaid County or Place where the ſaid Offence ſhall be committed, upon confeſſion of the party, view of the ſaid Juſtice, or Oath thereof made before ſuch Juſtice by one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, other then the Informer: Which Oath the ſaid Juſtice hath hereby power to Adminiſter, rendring the Overplus to the Owners thereof, neceſſary Charges of Diſtraining being firſt deducted. (3) And for want of ſuch Diſtreſs, the ſaid Offender or Offenders to be committed to the common Goal of the ſaid County or Place, there to remain for the ſpace of Three Months without Bail or Mainprize.

For want of diſtreſs, the party to be impriſoned without bail three months. Nothing herein to hinder Importation of Stock-fiſh and Eeles. Any perſon may Import Stock-fiſh and live Eeles.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That neither this Act nor any other Act whatſoever hereafter made, ſhall either hinder or be conſtrued to extend to hinder the Importation of Stock-fiſh or live Eels into this Kingdom of England; (2) but that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for all and every perſon and perſons whatſoever to Import into this Kingdom of England, any Stock-fiſh or live Eels as aforeſaid; Any thing in this Act or any other Law, Statute, Uſage or Cuſtom to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Want of ſufficient proviſion againſt Importation of Mutton and Lamb. No Mutton or Lamb ſhall be Imported. Mutton or Lamb Imported or expoſed to ſale, ſubject to former penalties.

VIII. And whereas the preſent Laws do not ſufficiently provide againſt the Importation of Mutton and Lamb out of Ireland, and other parts beyond the Seas into this Kingdom, but that great quantities thereof are daily Imported and Sold, to the great loſs and prejudice of this Kingdom, (2) Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Second day of February, no Mutton or Lamb ſhall be Imported into this Kingdom from the Kingdom of Ireland or any Foreign parts; (3) And all Mutton or Lamb Imported from Ireland, or beyond the Seas, or that ſhall be expoſed to Sale within this Kingdom, ſhall be ſubject to the like Seizures, and the Importers and Sellers thereof reſpectively to the like Penalties as are provided or appointed in any former Law againſt any Importer or Seller, or Importation of any Beef, Pork or Bacon, from the Kingdom of Ireland, or any Foreign parts; Any thing in this or any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Want of proviſion againſt Importation of Cheeſe and Butter. No Butter or Cheeſe ſhall be Imported. Butter and Cheeſe Imported and expoſed to ſale ſubject to former penalties.

IX. And whereas the preſent Laws do not ſufficiently provide againſt the Importation of Butter and Cheeſe out of Ireland into this Kingdom, but that great quantities thereof are daily Imported and Sold to the great loſs and prejudice of this Kingdom; (2) Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Second day of February, no Butter or Cheeſe ſhall be Imported into this Kingdom from the Kingdom of Ireland: (3) And all Butter and Cheeſe Imported from Ireland, or that ſhall be expoſed to Sale within this Kingdom, ſhall be ſubject to the like Seizures, and the Importers or Sellers thereof reſpectively, to the like Penalties as are provided or appointed in any former Law againſt any Importer or Seller, or Importation of any Beef, Bacon or Pork from the Kingdom of Ireland, or any Foreign parts; Any thing in this or any former Law or Satute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

For execution of 18 Car. 2. cap. 2. ſeizure to be in any pariſh into which Cattel remove.

X. And for the more effectual execution of this and the aforeſaid Act, (2) Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any great Cattel, Sheep or Swine ſhall be once or oftner Seized in purſuance of this or the aforeſaid Act, and afterwards either by permiſſion, connivance, negligence or otherwiſe ſhall be removed into, and found alive in any Pariſh or Place within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, other then ſuch Pariſh or Place wherein they ſhall have been reſpectively Seized, That then the ſaid Cattel, Sheep and Swine, ſhall be liable to like Seizure, and the Seizor and Poor of the Pariſh or Place have like benefit and advantage, and the Cattel, Sheep and Swine be forfeited, and the Proof be incumbent upon the Owner, as if ſuch Cattel had never before been Seized.

Fraud in intermixing Droves.

English Cattel driven or intermixed with, to be ſeized as Iriſh.

XI. And whereas divers perſons on purpoſe to diſcourage others from making Seizure of Iriſh Cattel, have intermixed ſome few Engliſh or other Cattel in Droves of Iriſh Cattel, and ſo created many vexatious and chargeable Suits againſt thoſe that have Seized Iriſh Cattel in purſuance of the aforeſaid Act, (2) Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any Engliſh or other Cattel driven or intermixed with Iriſh Cattel ſhall be Seized together with them, ſuch Cattel ſo intermixed and Seized ſhall be deemed Iriſh Cattel, and ſhall be ſubject to like forfeiture, and be ordered and diſpoſed of in all reſpects as if they were Iriſh Cattel, and Imported contrary to this and the aforeſaid Act.

Not to ſeize Cattle in England before Feb. 2. 1680.

XII. Provided that nothing in this Act ſhall be conſtrued to extend to the Forfeiture or Seizing any Cattel that are or ſhall be in England before the ſaid Second day of February.
